

THE SAMARITAN WOMAN.

A woman from the country of Samaria was at the well. Jesus was thirsty and asked her for a drink. Jesus told her all about her life and about the many gifts of God's kingdom. She believed He was God, and she told many people about Jesus. Later, she became the Christian Saint named Photini.